

Renaissance

R. Eastwood

School phone: (403) 887- 0491

Email:reastwood@cesd73.ca

Complementary: Human services: Renaissance

Driving Question:What is my role within the school and local community?

Course Description:

Students will be applying various leadership components throughout the term. These will include learning skills such as public speaking, public relations within our community, communication skills with the media and the planning of achievement assemblies for each term.

Fee: $5 (paints, markers, field trip to the Food Bank, supplies for team building exercises: candy, dollar store items, student access fee)

Career Possibilities: Business, Communication, Human Services

The primary expectation is for students to participate with a positive attitude and effort. Students take part in various mini units including:

Activities

- ❖ Leadership skill development
- ❖ Plan Gifts for Grandparents - advertising / announcements / Collection of items / taking the gifts to the Seniors Lodge in sylvan Lake
- ❖ Plan the term Assemblies - theme / decorations / speeches / powerpoint / take pictures for powerpoint
- ❖ Plan for spirit rallies - advertising / announcements / powerpoint / take pictures for the powerpoint, games and activities
- ❖ Remembrance Day Assembly
- ❖ Plan and Organize Orange Shirt Day
- ❖ Plan and Create the Haunted House

Supplies

Students are expected to bring the following supplies to class during this course:

- Duotang & personal supplies

CTF Outcomes

These are the areas we will be focusing on as a class.

Personal Connections
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• CTF is exploring interests, passions and skills while making personal connections to career possibilities
Designing and Creating
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• CTF is planning, creating, appraising and communicating in response to challenges.
Collaboration and Personal Growth
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• CTF is working independently and with others while exploring careers and technology.